

Academic Neuropathologist Position

JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI (USA). University of Mississippi Medical Center, Department of Pathology is pleased to announce an opening for a faculty Neuropathologist with primary responsibility for neuromuscular pathology diagnostic services, with other anatomic pathology responsibilities as assigned. Subspecialty training in Neuropathology is required.

The successful candidate is expected to participate in departmental, service, research, and education programs involving medical students and pathology residents.

Applicants should be board certified in AP/CP and Neuropathology. Applicants must be eligible for an unrestricted medical license in the state of Mississippi.

Salary will be commiserate with the applicant's education and experience. UMMC offers a generous benefits package including but not limited to health and dental insurance as well as a very competitive retirement plan.

Interested applicants are invited to send an application letter with a description of qualifications, curriculum vitae, and the names of at least three references to:

Timothy Craig Allen, MD, JD, FCAP

Professor and Chair

Department of Pathology

University of Mississippi Medical Center

2500 N. State Street

Jackson, MS 39216

"The University of Mississippi Medical Center is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, religion, color, age, disability, marital status, national origin, or veteran's status."