

ACADEMIC NEUROPATHOLOGIST

MONTREAL NEUROLOGICAL HOSPITAL/ INSTITUTE AND MCGILL UNIVERSITY

The Division of Neuropathology at the Montreal Neurological Institute and Hospital and the Department of Pathology of McGill University are seeking a Full time Academic Neuropathologist. Responsibilities will include participation in all aspects of diagnostic and teaching activities with independent or collaborative research. Interest in neurodegenerative or neuromuscular pathology would be an asset. The successful candidate will be appointed in the Department of Pathology and cross appointed in the Department of Neurology and Neurosurgery, McGill University.

The Montreal Neurological Hospital is part of the McGill University Health Centre. The Neuropathology service at the MNH handles around 1400 surgical specimens per year, including 150 muscle and nerve biopsies, and approximately 150 autopsies including neurodegenerative cases from an affiliated brain bank. Members of the Division of Neuropathology participate in university departmental teaching, including undergraduate and graduate student teaching, teaching of medical students as well as supervision of residents and fellows. They also take on administrative tasks as university and hospital committee.

Candidate must be certified in Neuropathology by the Royal College of Physician and Surgeon of Canada, or have an appropriate level of speciality training in Neuropathology for licensure in Quebec.

The anticipated start of the position is for September 2013.

McGill University is committed to diversity and equity in employment. It welcomes applications from Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, ethnic minorities, persons of minority sexual orientation or gender identity, visible minorities, women, and others who may contribute to diversification. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter, CV, and the names of three references by email to Ms. Emmanuelle Perrot-Audet at emmanuelle.perrot-audet@mcgill.ca. Deadline for receipt of applications is June 29, 2013.
